Beliefs and Core Values

Teach For Australia is a start-up organisation that aspires to high standards and results. Our shared beliefs form the foundation of our values:

- We hold up equality of opportunity for every child in Australia as a fundamental right.
- We acknowledge that dramatic gaps in student achievement and hence future opportunities in life exist in Australia along socioeconomic, geographic and ethnic lines.
- We believe that improving teacher quality is the most direct way to raise student achievement.
- We commit ourselves to recruiting, training and supporting top, well-rounded university graduates to serve as teachers and leaders in schools with the greatest need.
- We aspire to transform education and wider society through our alumni and partnerships, building a network of engaged leaders across all fields.

In pursuing these aims, we uphold five core values:

Empowering greatness

We are agents for change: in ourselves, in our students, and in our society.

We empower and enable others to excel.

We see great possibilities.

Pursuit of results

We approach our goals with determination and a sense of urgency.

We take personal responsibility for achieving ambitious results.

We use data to think critically about problems and solutions.

Innovation

We overcome obstacles with energy, creativity, and resourcefulness.

We look for ways to continuously improve.

We try new approaches.

Humility

We keep in mind the limits of our own experiences.

We seek diverse perspectives to inform our views.

We respect the communities we serve.

Integrity

We ensure alignment between our actions and our values.

We seek to do what is right for the broader mission.

We engage in honest self-reflection.
