

TEACH TO LEAD

ARE YOU AN ASPIRING SCHOOL LEADER?

Are you committed to tackling educational inequity?
Are you looking to grow your leadership capabilities?
Do you want to excel in a school where you can make the most difference?

The only program of its kind in Australia, Teach To Lead lifts the leadership capacity of great teachers to leaders in the schools that need them most. Our mission is to develop a pipeline of exceptional school leaders supporting low socioeconomic communities, to ensure all children achieve their potential.

TURNING AMBITION INTO REALITY

More than a quarter of Teach To Lead Fellows have been promoted since commencing the program. 13 per cent have been promoted to a principal class position.

DURATION
1 year

MODE
Face-to-face (9 days, 4 during term time) & virtual coaching, supported by a community of like-minded learners

AUDIENCE
Applicants must be:

- Aspiring school leaders
- Working in a primary or secondary school with an ICSEA of 1000 or below

FEES
$1500 + GST

100%
of Fellows believe their performance as a leader has improved following the program

86%
of Fellows believe this program improved their leadership performance more than any other PD activity

89%
of Fellows believe that their in-school change project has improved their performance as a leader

100% of Fellows believe that the face-to-face sessions improved their performance as a leader

100% of Fellows believe they have improved their leadership knowledge as a result of the overall program

“IT DOES WHAT IT SAYS ON THE BOX! I HAVE SOUGHT INCREASING LEADERSHIP AT MY SCHOOL, WHILST DRIVING CHANGE AIMED AT REDUCING EDUCATIONAL DISADVANTAGE.”

- Daniel Crane, Cohort 2018 Fellow, Year 7 Coordinator & Wellbeing & Learning Coordinator

Teach To Lead is an initiative of Teach For Australia, supported by the Sidney Myer Fund and Gandel Philanthropy.

Teach To Lead is delivered in Victoria in partnership with the Victorian Department of Education and Training's Bastow Institute of Educational Leadership.

Our vision is of an Australia where all children, regardless of background, attain an excellent education.